Roundthorn Way, Goldsworth Park, Woking, Surrey, GU21 3QN

A truly stunning four-bedroom end-of-terrace family home boasting extended and impeccably maintained accommodation, positioned moments from Goldsworth Park playing fields and the tranquil Goldsworth Park lake. The area offers easy access to local amenities and schools, while commuters will appreciate excellent links to Woking railway station via the nearby '91' bus service.

Entering the property, a bright hallway has excellent storage and gives access to stairs leading to first floor landing and opening into the principal living space. The living space is generous in size with three sets of doors opening to the gardens, bringing in plenty of natural light. The kitchen features a range of modern fitted units with several integrated appliances. Completing the ground floor is a family room/study adding versatility of use to this ground floor layout. A recently refitted downstairs WC completes the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, there are four generous bedrooms, each boasting fitted storage with the master bedroom further enhanced by a newly installed contemporary en-suite. The remaining bedrooms share use of a refitted family bathroom comprising bath with shower over, low level WC and pedestal hand basin.

Externally, the property continues to impress. To the front, there is ample driveway parking, while the rear garden enjoys complete seclusion and the advantage of a corner plot. It offers a generous lawn, a large patio, a substantial shed/workshop and an attractive decked BBQ area—ideal for entertaining.
